

PROTECTING SCOTLAND'S BADGERS AGAINST CRUELTY AND PERSECUTION – LEAVE A LEGACY TO SCOTTISH BADGERS

SCOTTISH BADGERS is Scotland's only charity dedicated to the protection of these beautiful unassuming creatures.

Leading the fight against such cruelties, SCOTTISH BADGERS:-

- HAS ACHIEVED GREATER LEGAL PROTECTION for badgers through amendments to legislation
- LEADS CRIME PREVENTION FOR 'OPERATION MELES' – a UK wide partnership between the Police, and animal welfare agencies to prevent crime
- EDUCATES PRIMARY SCHOOL CHILDREN to help them appreciate the marvels of badger life that is on their doorstep
- PROVIDES EXPERT ADVICE to planners, transport, forestry, agriculture and other land managers to help protect setts and foraging land for badgers

A will is a powerful way to continue helping Scotland's badgers after you are gone.

Badgers in Scotland suffer unimaginable cruelties every day. They are torn to pieces by dogs, beaten, drowned, snared, shot and poisoned. Their dependent cubs are left to die. Road accidents cause agonising deaths to thousands every year.

SCOTTISH BADGERS relies entirely on raising charitable funds to pay for all this work.

Please consider naming SCOTTISH BADGERS as a beneficiary in your will.

Every little makes a difference.

Generally, you can use the following wording to make a bequest through your will:

"I give to SCOTTISH BADGERS – registered Scottish Charity number SC034297 and registered address at Hillhead, North Mains of Kinnettles, Forfar, Scotland DD8 1XF - the sum of £..... [insert words and figures, or describe the portion of the estate] to be used for its general purposes. I declare that the receipt of the treasurer or another proper officer shall be a full and sufficient discharge"

100 per cent of your gift will go directly to the work of protecting Scotland's badgers.
